

7th International Conference of Advocates

November 8, 2019

On November 8, the Georgian Bar will host 7th International Conference of Advocates dedicated to 100th anniversary of Georgian Bar. The Conference will focus on the issue of the Role of Bar Associations and Law Societies in Effective Administration of Justice and it will showcase the presentations of Council of Europe experts on European standards and presentations of Bar leaders on country perspectives concerning the following areas:

- Key aspects of independence of legal profession and of their professional unions;
- Importance and the ways of effective cooperation among Bar, Judiciary and Prosecution;
- Interrelationship between the use of social networks by advocates and their ethical obligations in the context of freedom of expression.

The Conference will consist of 1 day conference and the official part of the Conference will be followed by Official Ceremony and Reception that will serve as an excellent occasion for international guests to experience Georgian culture and traditions.

Please see Conference related information available on the following website - <https://www.tbilisiconference.com/>